The Mandarin Newsletter

Thank you for letting us share news and developments in the world of library automation solutions. Our goal is to give you the information and insight you and your library need to make the most out of your existing system - and to determine what tools you'll benefit from in the future. This is your space, so please contact us with topics you'd like us to cover.

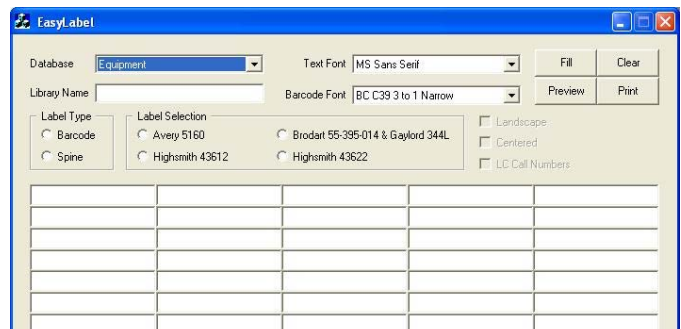

Mandarin EasyLabel Utility

- The new Mandarin EasyLabel Utility works with Mandarin software to print "smart" barcodes and spine labels.
- Easy interface for printing barcode and spine labels
- Choose to start printing from any label on the sheet
- Create spine labels for LC classification; (will split the information from Field 852 subfields "h" and "i" when creating the label).
- Designed to work with the most popular label formats (Avery and Brodart).

Download EasyLabel Now!

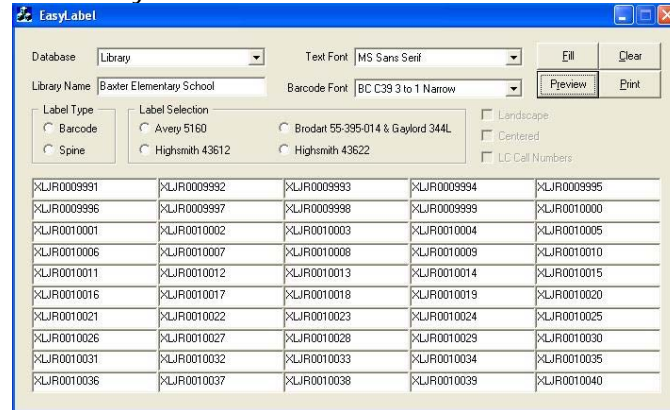

To download EasyLabel*, Login to "Customer's Corner" and go to "Utilities", click the link "Download EasyLabel Now" and follow the instructions.

When you launch EasyLabel, the EasyLabel Window will look like this:

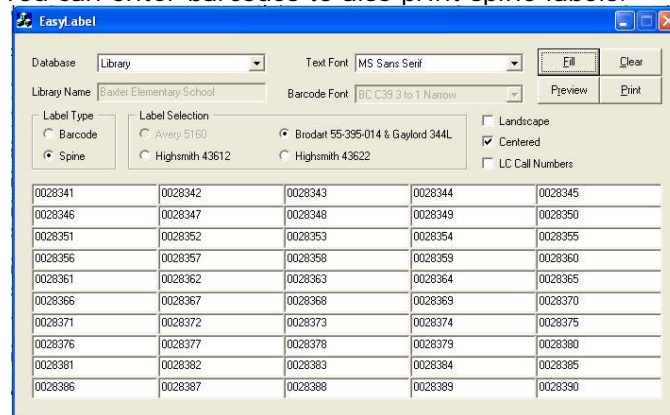

EasyLabel will print smart barcodes or spine labels corresponding to the barcodes numbers you scan or enter in the box where the cursor is active.

You can preview the printing/labels or send directly to your printer.

You can enter barcodes to also print spine labels.

You can preview the printing or send directly to your printer.

You can also print Library of Congress numbers. We strongly recommend before printing on the labels itself to print on a regular paper then compare by overlapping the sheets to see if you get the result you are looking for.

* You must have a current Mandarin Annual Service and Update Agreement to be eligible to download the EasyLabel Utility.

The Mandarin Forum allows you and your colleagues throughout the world to share valuable information, give and receive important tips and open discussions on areas relevant to you and your library.

Join now and take advantage of this free, open and comprehensive resource open only to Mandarin clients.

Here's how:

- Current customers can access the Mandarin Forum through the Customer's Corner.
- Log in and choose Mandarin Community (lower right corner) and then User's Discussion Board.
